Kid's Tournament at Cottage Grove - Sunday, June 27

There are several non-boaters with children who would like to participate. Since many of the boaters have kids of their own, we could really use some help from other boaters who are willing to take out a parent along with a child or two. To make sure that everyone is able to fish, Rob Wardan will pass around a sign-up sheet at the next business meeting. If you plan on being at the kid's tournament, but can't make it to the meeting, please call Rob at 683-3341.

Lonnie Crabtree has generously donated two brand new rods as prizes for the kids, and several other people have donated tackle they won at the last business meeting raffle. But we could still use some more prizes. Please bring donations to the business meeting on June 1, or make other arrangements to get them to Rob Wardan. Reed Conrad has also offered to help with the event. And Mike Finley has volunteered to bring a barbeque to cook up some burgers and hotdogs for all who show up. Thanks to everyone for helping out.

Fall Creek delivers another close finish

In April, Troy Corgain won the Shasta tournament, beating Rob Wardan and Paul Brown by a mere 0.01 pounds (about an 1/8th of an ounce). On May 23, it was payback time at Fall Creek. Rob Wardan, with the help of teammate Dennis Green barely managed a win, beating Troy and partner Rob Ross by a slim 0.05 pound margin. This is competition at its best!

George Downs caught the big fish weighing 3.83 pounds, placing him and Roger Emmert in third place with a total weight of 8.79 lbs. Troy and Rob Ross finished second with a weight of 9.92 lbs. And Rob Wardan and Dennis Green finished first, with five fish weighing 9.97 lbs.
